Report attached. Staff recommends approval.

Presentation given by Liz Shatto, Historic Society; Janet Davis, Frederick County Historic Preservation Planner; & John Fieseler, Executive Director, Tourism Council.

Bell–What are benefits to Brunswick?

Liz–Once TIZ qualification finalized, Brunswick eligible for all incentives. Railroad Museum and Main Street will benefit. Individual citizens could receive tax incentives.

Smith–Can Main Street receive funds?

John Fieseler–State grants cannot be matched with other state grants. Other funds could be matched though.

Liz–Other Main Street areas in Maryland are already involved in program.

Mayor–Is TIZ status competitive?

Liz–Nothing preventing Brunswick from moving forward in process.

John–More direct benefits are in TIZ. Benefits outside TIZ are somewhat secondary.

Smith–Council voted on program in 1999. Why wasn't Master Plan amended then?

John–1999 vote was to become a Recognized Heritage Area. This is next step in process.

Bell–What is involved in Master Plan Text Amendment?

Rick–Fee is around $1500, which covers only around half of actual cost.

Bell–What is time frame?

Rick-Text amendments take six-eight work weeks to complete.
